

KENYA GOLF UNION

CONSTITUTION

Revised and reprinted 2014

PREAMBLE

The Kenya Golf Union has a long history that was articulated in the preface of its 2009 constitution .The promulgation of a new constitution of Kenya in August 2010 and the coming into effect of the Sports Act No. 25 of 2013 has made it necessary to revise the Constitution of the Union to align it with prevailing regulatory framework. The Sports Act 2013 has not only created new institutions that the Union has to work with but also necessitated the establishment of a Golf Federation as the national organization for the sport of Golf in Kenya. The Kenya Golf Union will operate under the Kenya Golf Federation to discharge its mandate as outlined in the revised edition of the KGU Constitution 2014. The Union envisions that the new institutional realignment will foster public and private partnership in strengthening Golf in Kenya as an Olympic Sport.

THE KENYA GOLF UNION

BY L.R. FISHER [REVISED BY S.R. NDEGWA]

This is, in a very condensed form, the history of the Kenya Golf Union and its objects. A separate booklet would be necessary to do justice to a full history since its foundation, but it is hoped that readers will find the facts now related of interest.

The first attempt to form a Golf Union in East Africa, similar to Golf Unions in the United Kingdom and other parts of the Commonwealth, took place at a meeting convened by the late Mr. A. C. Tannahill and held at Nairobi Golf Club [now Royal Nairobi Golf Club] on 7th July, 1923. There were 13 representatives present from Golf Clubs in Kenya, Tanganyika and Uganda. The late Major J. D. Leonard took the Chair and the late Mr. A. C. Tannahill acted as Honorary Secretary. A formation committee was appointed and included in addition to the two names mentioned, the late W. T. Shapley and the late F. S. Dunn. It was finally decided to name the Union "The Golf Union of East Africa" and it is from this original venture that the present Kenya Golf Union owes its origin.

There are no records between 1924 and 1928, but by the latter year it is obvious that the Golf Union of East Africa had ceased to function on an East African basis and at a meeting of the Golf Captains who had taken part in the Nairobi Golf Club Easter Tournament, and held on 29th December 1928, the Kenya Golf Union was inaugurated. The first member clubs were Eldoret, Gilgil, Kiambu, Kitale, Nairobi and Muthaiga, a total of six. The membership of the Union today consists of 38 clubs and two societies.

A question often asked by golfers who are perhaps comparatively new recruits to the game is "What is the Kenya Golf Union and what does it do?" The answer to that question is very brief, the Kenya Golf Union is the banding together of golf clubs in Kenya in a Union, in order to control their affairs and to promote the interests of the game of golf. In other words, the Union is in effect the Golf Clubs.

The original objects of the Union as stated in the first constitution were:-

- a. To promote the interest of golf in the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya;
- b. To control the Amateur Golf Championship of Kenya
- c. To give approval and recognition to suitable Golfing Societies originating in the Colony

The above objects have since been enlarged and the current constitution is reprinted in this booklet.

Initially, an Annual General Meeting of the Kenya Golf Union was held each year at Easter, usually in the Club House of Royal Nairobi Golf Club. At this meeting, a member of every club affiliated to the Union would be present and would have powers of voting. Currently, Muthaiga Golf Club is the home of the Kenya Golf Union and the Constitution has been amended such that the Annual General Meeting is held during the month of May. Moreover, clubs have been categorised to provide equity in terms of number of members in each club.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The above article on the history of Kenya Golf Union is an extract from "The Game of Golf in East Africa" by Dickie Hooper.
